

Fwlab.com

Contributed by Michele Fadda

FwLab.com is my professional, e-commerce web site. There I deal with firmware design, web design, software development . You will notice that this site bears FwLab trademark as well.

Talking about e-commerce, I've just set up my online shop and put online my first downloadable product:

It is a professional set of icons for Vista and Web.

You will also it at: <http://fwlab.com> and from the online web publisher lulu.com
